Management of long-term neurological conditions can be complex and it is imperative that all physiotherapy specialists within the field remain as up-to-date as possible about emerging treatments and management approaches.

Physiotherapy 2014 will examine the challenges of managing these complex neurological conditions, with the aim of arming participants with practical information that can positively influence every day practice.

Who should attend?

Physiotherapy 2014 will be of particular interest to the following:

- Physiotherapists
- Neurological physiotherapists
- Neuroscience nurses
- GPs with a specialist interest in stroke, Parkinson’s and multiple sclerosis
- Occupational therapists
- Health visitors
- Brain injury specialists
- All trainees in these disciplines
