This conference aims to equip delegates as they traverse the canyons and ascend the peaks of evidence, leadership, clinical practice and partnership. To dynamically enhance clinical practice through innovative patient care.

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

- Mr Paul Martin Development of a multiport otolith paralysmic physiotherapy service Technical Lead Physiotherapist English Institute of Sport, UK
- Ms Dawn Ibrahim Application of neuroprinciples with the elite athlete lead Physiotherapist GB Boccia, UK
- Professor Heidi Johansen Berg Imaging and stimulating adaptive brain plasticity: implications for rehabilitation Professor of Cognitive Neurosciences University of Oxford, UK
- Ms Bhanu Ramaswamy OBE Reconceptualising Parkinson’s – a message for health professionals from people affected by Parkinson’s Consultant Physiotherapist, UK
- Ms Melissa McConaghy Physiotherapy doesn’t work Director at AKF Health Australia and Founder of the PD Warrior programme, Australia
- Professor Frederike van Wijck Professor of Neurological Rehabilitation, Glasgow Caledonian University, UK
- Mr Julie Duncan-Miller “The Mexican wave always stops with me”: gaining perspectives from stroke survivors, carers and health professionals to inform upper limb rehabilitation research PhD Student Glasgow Caledonian University, UK
- Dr Emma Stack Zen and the Art of Full Arduance University of Southampton, UK
- Professor Amy Bastian Chief Scientific Officer Kennedy Krieger Institute, Maryland, USA
- Professor Geert Verheyden Understanding somatosensory deficits in arm and hand after stroke: Towards a clinical implementation Faculty of Kinesiology and Rehabilitation Sciences University of Leuven, Belgium
- Dr Dylan Morrissey A case history to show how a team, and lateral thinking in a high pressure environment Millbank Harvey Research Institute, Queen Mary’s University, UK
- Ms Caryl Becker Physiotherapy delivery: the trials and tribulations of an away Paralympic Games Chef Physiotherapist Team GB 2012 Paralympic Physiotherapist, UK
- Dr Dave Saunders Sitting, activity and exercise after stroke: Physical Activity for Health Research Centre (PAHRC), University of Edinburgh, UK
- Dr Praveen Kumar Shoulder pain and subluxation in people with stroke – where are we now and what’s the future? University of West England, UK
- Professor Frederike van Wijck Shoulder pain and subluxation in people with stroke – where are we now and what’s the future? University of West England, UK
- Dr Praveen Kumar Shoulder pain and subluxation in people with stroke – where are we now and what’s the future? University of West England, UK
- Professor Frederike van Wijck Shoulder pain and subluxation in people with stroke – where are we now and what’s the future? University of West England, UK
- Professor Avril Drummond Challenges: make the interesting: day-to-day problems with undertaking research Director of Research and Prof Healthcare Research University of Nottingham, UK
- Dr Randy Imanuel Interfacing emerging trends in engineering technology and physical therapy and Acute intermittent hypoxia: a plasticity-promoting primer to restore motor function in persons with spinal injury Assistant Professor in Rehabilitation, Emory University of Medicine, Atlanta, Georgia, USA
- Professor Al-Chalabi MND the disease: What’s new in it’s management Director of King’s MND Care and Research Centre, Kings College London, UK
- Dr Kate Pedrow Constraint induced movement therapy: lessons for clinical practice Ulster University, UK

TICKETS

- ACPIN MEMBERS
  - Two day ticket: £250
  - One-day ticket: £200
- NON-MEMBERS
  - Two day ticket: £300

To register go to www.acpin.net